The following text is for questions 20 to 22.

Animal testing is a deeply divided subject, with a great deal of passion, emotion, and ideas on both sides regarding the ethic of the practice. Some individuals support animal testing and some others oppose its use.

The scientific community is strongly in favour in animal testing. The medical breakthroughs that have occurred as a result of animal testing are considered reason enough to continue the practice, with the aim of reducing human suffering and saving human lives. Animal testing aids researchers in finding drugs and treatments to improve health and medicine. Many medical treatments have been made possible by animal testing, including cancer and HIV drugs, insulin, antibiotics, vaccines, and many more. Animal testing also helps to ensure the safety of drugs and many other substances humans use or are exposed to regularly. Scientists typically use animals for testing purpose because they are considered similar to humans.

The contras on the issue of animal testing is that countless animals are experimented on and then killed after their use. Others are injured and will still live the rest of their lives in captivity. Many of these animals received tests for substances that will never actually be used for public consumption and use. Animal testing generally costs an enormous amount of money as the animals must be fed, housed, cared for and treated with drugs or experimental substances. The price of the animal themselves must also be factored into equation.

As a result of the controversy, regulations and laws should be enforced. At the very least, animal suffering should be minimized and that animals should be respected during their care. If animal testing is to continue, animals must be abused.

20. Which of the following is the reason why scientists use animals for testing?
   A. Animals are the same as humans.
   B. Animals and humans are regarded be alike.
   C. Animals can reduce human suffering.
   D. Medical treatments can be given to animals.
   E. Cancer and HIV can be found in animals.

21. The main idea of paragraph 3 is ....
   A. the practice of animal testing is intolerable
   B. animals need to be fed, housed, and cared for
   C. drugs and experimental substances are useless
   D. animal testing costs enormous amount of money
   E. animal testing causes many animals live in captivity

22. From the text above, we can conclude that ....
   A. medical experiments should be limited
   B. pet lovers are in favour in animal testing
   C. animal testing is against the laws and regulations
   D. vaccines used today have been tested on animals
   E. patients never get benefit from the practices of animal testing

Indonesia's Biggest Cinematic Achievement

I believe there's a huge responsibility in adapting the number 1 best selling novel. The book was certainly popular and everybody worships this work of Andrea Hirata. I didn't expect anything too spectacular from the movie, because as spectacular the book supposedly to be a letdown.

Laskar Pelangi is no doubt, one of the best Indonesian movies. It beats the Denias: Senandung di Atas Awan, and Ayat-Ayat Cinta (The Verses of Love). It's a 5 star masterpiece in Indonesia, but still deserves 4.5-5 Star in Hollywood stage. The movie contains social and educational issues and strongly declares that everyone needs education and every one needs to be educated. We can learn many life lessons from the movie.

I can’t stop saying that Laskar Pelangi is a marvelous picture. As a matter of fact, I can’t even name a flaw! The casts are perfect, as many of the stars are Indonesian leading and popular actors. Credit to Cut Mini Theo since she brought such a strong performance as a determined teacher. Author Andrea Hirata is a genius since the storyline is beautiful, touching, and engaging at the same time. So get yourself boxes of Kleenex to watch the movie. Thanks to director Riri Riza and producer Mira Lesmana for making the movie good and safe it from being a letdown. Even the author was amazed with the crew’s job and state the movie is better than his original writing.

The following text is for questions 33 to 35

Faster planes and cheaper flights are making it easier than ever before for people to travel. In the most ‘developed’ societies, visiting exotic places is a sought-after status symbol. The tourism industries of both developed and developing countries have recognised this fact and are learning to take advantage of it.

There are, however, some problems associated with this new industry. Firstly, there is the increasing crime rate. Some locals see tourists as an easy prey because, not only are they in unfamiliar territory and therefore less able to take care of themselves, but also they carry visible items of wealth, such as cameras and jewelery which can be disposed of quickly for profit.

Another major problem is health. With greater mobility comes greater danger of spreading contagious diseases around the world. One carrier returning home could easily start an epidemic before their illness was diagnosed. Moreover, the emergence of many diseases which resist antibiotics is causing scientists to be increasingly concerned about this issue.

Also to be considered is the natural environment, which can be seriously threatened by too many visitors. Australia’s Great Barrier Reef, for example, is in danger of being destroyed by tourists and there are plans to restrict visitors to some of the more delicate coral cays.

These are just three of the reasons why any country should be wary of committing itself to an extensive tourism development program.

33. Why does the natural environment become one of the serious problem associated with the faster planes and cheaper flight? Because ....
   A. it easily started an epidemic before their illness was diagnosed
   B. it can be destroyed by too many visitors
   C. the health problem will increase
   D. they carry visible items of wealth
   E. it can increase crime rate

34. Why is the crime rate increasing due to the new industry?
   A. Some tourists carry visible items of wealth.
   B. The tourists are spreading contagious diseases.
   C. The government is planning to restrict visitors to some coral cays.
   D. The new industry makes the number of unemployment increase.
   E. The tourists come by plane.

35. "One carrier returning home could easily start an epidemic before their illness was diagnosed." (Paragraph 3)
   The underlined word means ....
   A. found
   B. observed
   C. identified
   D. examined
   E. healed
Jakarta (ANTARA News) – Indonesian Institute of Science (LIPI) researcher Amir Hamidy and his associates have identified two new frog species in Belitung (Indonesia) and Sarawak (Malaysia) over the 2008-2012 periods.

“We have identified two new frog species and have named them L.Ingeri and L.Kanowitense,” Amir said in an email received here on Friday.

He said he and his associates from Kyoto University, University Kebangsaan Malaysia, and the University of Malaya published their discovery in Zootaxa journal on July 24, 2012.

He noted that the two new frog species were genetically different from other frogs in the world. “Usually, if two frogs have more than a 3 percent difference in genetic length, they can be categorized as different species. However, in the case of L.Ingeri and L.Kanowitense, there is a difference of more than 9 percent,” Amir pointed out.

36. What is the best title of the text?
   A. Indonesian researcher identifies new frog species.
   B. Antara News got e-mail about new frog species.
   C. University of Malaya published their discovery.
   D. New frog species have been discovered in Kyoto Japan.
   E. Amir Hamidy named the new frogs L.Ingeri and L.Kanowitense.

Ryan Lochte and Sun Yang were among the few who weren’t concerned about getting wet when heavy rain saturated London Olympic Park on Sunday.

After a week of sunshine, rain and the forecast of hail on the second day affected the start of tennis on the lawn courts at Wimbledon and made for slippery conditions in the women’s cycling road race.

It didn’t seem to bother the swimmers. Lochte had the second-fastest time in qualifying for the 200-meter freestyle, the morning after his stunning win in a 400-meter individual medley final.

“I didn’t get to bed until like 2 a.m. So I’m a little tired, but it was a prelims swim, so I’m not too worried about it,” said Lochte, who went out with family and friends to celebrate his victory. Phelps won an unprecedented eight golds at the Beijing Olympics, but now can’t win any more than six in London.

China’s Sun is on track for a second gold medal after leading qualifiers in the 200 freestyle in 1 minute 46.24 seconds the morning after his victory in the 400 freestyle. While the weather was bad, there were other blights: a female gymnast from Uzbekistan was provisionally suspended after failing a doping test, the second case of the games. The IOC says Luiza Galiluina tested positive for the diuretic furosemide on Wednesday.

The Near-Death Story of Mellen-Thomas Benedict

In 1982, I died from terminal cancer. My condition was non-operable. I chose not to have chemotherapy. I was given six to eight months to live. Before this time, I had become increasingly despondent over the nuclear crisis, the ecology crisis, and so forth. I came to believe that nature had made a mistake—that we were probably a cancerous organism on the planet. And that is what eventually killed me.

Before my near-death experience, I tried all sort of alternative healing methods. None helped. So I determined that this was between me and God. I had never really considered God. Neither was I into any kind of spirituality and alternative healing. I read various religions and philosophies. They gave hope that there was something on the other side.

I had no medical insurance, so my life savings went overnight on tests. Unwilling to drag my family into this, I determined to handle this myself. I ended up in hospice care and was blessed with an angel for my hospice caretaker, whom I will call "Anne." She stayed with me through all that was to follow.
